TRANSCRIPT OF KOIN, CHANNEL 6, NEWSCAST

Mike Donahue, Newscaster: "Television Evangelism is alive and broadcasting in Portland on a TV station you may not have noticed. It's called National Minority Television. As Ken Boddie reports the station is spreading the gospel while trying to give minorities experience in the competitive TV business."

KNMT-TV Announcer: This is Northwest Focus, a public affairs presentation of KNMT, TV 24.

Boddie: This interview with Black newspaper publisher Bernie Foster is one example of the programming you will find on channel 24.

McClellan: We would like to be the christian television station for this community and reach out to everybody whether red or yellow, black or white or depending on their denominational background, we don't care.

Boddie: Evangelist Jim McClellan is the station manager for National Minority Television, Incorporated. The two-year old station is affiliated with the Trinity Broadcasting Religious Network which financed the impressed studios housed in an old supermarket building. McClellan, who was on the executive committee for Billy Graham's Portland visit, says that since a majority of the board of directors are minorities hiring people of color is a priority.

McClellan: In fact we are looking for the minority community. We puts ads in the Asian Reporter, the Hispanic News, The Scanner. We are attempting to reach out to the minority community.

Boddie: En Park is an assistant producer at channel 24 and one of 12 full time employees.

En Park: The experience I gained here I feel is invaluable and I know that if I were to work at another station I wouldn't have such opportunities.

Phone person: It's fate that the Lord is looking for in our lives.

Boddie: The studios house a phone bank for prayer services, a place for needy families to get clothing and food, as well as a small chapel. If you haven't heard of channel 24 there is a reason especially if you're on cable. According to the Arbitron Rating Service about 18,000 households tune into KNMT. And although it is on the Columbia cable system in Vancouver it is having a hard time being accepted by TCI Cable and Paragon Cable the two largest cable companies in the Portland metro area.

McClellan: But a number of the other cable systems said we have a religious channel or we don't have room for you or what other reason they decided not to carry us.

Boddie: So KNMT, channel 24, continues to operate only over-the-air in virtual anonymity and hoping to expand its message to a wider audience in the future. In northeast Portland, Ken Boddie. Newsroom 6.

Mr. Stanton states that crime is a universal problem and there is a growing intolerance of lawlessness at all levels, with gang activities a growing problem. The job of the O.C. Board of Supervisors is to provide a county jail system that is adequate to hold those people who are to be incarcerated for a set period of time. The problem in Orange County as well as across the nation, is not enough beds and not enough state funds. | | Hal Lindsey, host, introduces Bruce Herschensohn, well known commentator in California, who talks about the Rodney King verdict. He says poverty is no excuse for criminality. Herschensohn said the National Guard should have been in L.A. during the riots with- in moments to insure domestic tranquility. Our Coun- try's philosophy is based on an individual being re- sponsible for his/her self. The riots in L.A. were not racial but a matter of bad people who wanted to take advantage of the situation. | | | | | 5-12-92 | 2:00P |

| | As Nancy and Charlotte were sitting in their car a young man tapped on the window. Charlotte lowered the window and the man put a knife against her throat and ordered them to get into his car. After raping them both throughout the night, he tied their hands together, stuffed them into his trunk and put a hose from the exhaust to the trunk. Nancy bit through Charlotte's binding and she pushed the hose out. The attacker then started beating them with a tree limb until they were unconscious, drowned them in a pond and then threw them over a cliff. The landing was like CPR to Nancy and she started breathing, but Charlotte didn't make it. Nancy had memorized the attackers license plate, turned it over to the police, and later they arrested the man. Nancy knows God spared her life and now has a Victim of Crime Ministry. | | | | | | |
